

This is the list of resources recommended by Karyn Henley at her Child Talk™ Seminars.

We do not carry these books in our inventory, so you will have to do your own research to find them. Also, we cannot guarantee that all of them are still in print.

NOTE: By recommending these materials, Karyn Henley and Karyn Henley Resources do not necessarily agree with or endorse the totality of the authors' viewpoints or conclusions. As a country preacher once said, "Sometimes you've got to eat the meat and leave the bones!"

The PDF file you have downloaded has been assembled using scanned images. As a result, the images may not be as clear as some files you may have downloaded from other sources.

Recommended Books

About Child Development:

By the Ages. K. Aileen Allen, Lynn R. Marotz. Delmar. (covers birth - eight)

Yardsticks. Chip Wood. Northeast Foundation for Children.
(covers ages four - fourteen)

About Moral Development and Behavior Management:

The Moral Intelligence of Children. Dr. Robert Coles. Random House.
(research; a more difficult read)

Parenting Adolescents. Kevin Huggins. Navpress.

Positive Discipline A-Z. Nelsen, Lott, and Glenn. Prima.
(1001 solutions to everyday parenting problems)

A Practical Guide for Solving Preschool Behavior Problems. Eva Essa.
Delmar. (for the preschool classroom)

Raising Good Children. Dr. Thomas Lickona. Bantam.

Raising Kids to Love Jesus. Wright and Oliver. Regal Books.

Relational Parenting. Dr. Ross Campbell. Moody.

About the Strong-Willed Child:

The Difficult Child. Dr. Stanley Turecki. Bantam.

You Can't Make Me, But I Can Be Persuaded. Cynthia Tobias. Waterbrook.

About other specific issues:

Bullies and Victims. Suellen Fried, Paula Fried. M. Evans and Co.

Good Grief: Helping Groups of Children When a Friend Dies.
Sandra Sutherland Fox. New England Association for the Education of Young Children.

You and Your A.D.D. Child. Warren and Capehart. Thomas Nelson.